

Melodia Women's Choir seeks a multi-media artist to create a visual landscape for a virtual choir video recording of I Dream a World by André J. Thomas. The choir will provide an audio track for the 2.5-minute piece. The final video will be included in the choir's May 2021 virtual concerts.

Founded in 2003 in NYC by Cynthia Powell, Artistic Director, and Jenny Clarke, Executive Director, Melodia is an acclaimed 30-voice ensemble dedicated to exploring, creating, and performing exemplary classical and contemporary music composed for women's voices.
